KING OF ALL SANDWICHES AT THE YELLOW DELI

The handmade touches and rustic décor feels like this is a pub discovered in the rolling hills of a far off land, not a venue sat at the far end of Honiton's High Street. The eatery oozes quaint charm and sparks curiosity in every corner.

The Yellow Deli serve's very honest food which bursts with rich, hearty flavours. From the succulent sandwiches, to the sweet and sticky puds, the more-ish menu will leave you full but still wanting more.
