"We moved into a smaller home, so we sold most of our diamonds, jewelry, and sterling silver pieces. We were grateful that The Estate Department was honest and courteous. Instead of collecting dust, our items are now collecting interest!"

"We were very pleasantly surprised! Our large diamond has now been converted into cash. Anyone who has ANY item they think may be of value, would be well-advised to bring it to The Estate Department for an assessment. We did and have the CASH to prove it!"

"I suspected my children weren't interested in my diamonds or my antique diamond jewelry, and couldn't figure out how to divide it fairly among them. So, I sold it and divided up the money instead. The Estate Department was right, I feel much better about everything now."

"I have inherited family heirlooms for a long time, which included diamonds and diamond jewelry. Then it occurred to me that I was more interested in the cash value. The Estate Department gave me an honest, FREE evaluation and paid a fair price, too."

Is $10,000, $25,000, $50,000, $100,000 or $500,000 enough for your diamond? If so, bring it in to the Estate Department for a free evaluation and the highest possible CASH offer available anywhere!
