

Hemel Funeral Service

Turn to us for help and support

The loss of a loved one is one of the most painful and difficult experiences of our lives. At that sad and difficult time your choice of funeral director is the most important decision you will make.

Hemel Funeral Service has been serving the local community since 2010 and offers local families the highest levels of customer care, professional advice and sympathetic assistance with all the practical arrangements that need to be made for a funeral.

The funeral home consists of a free car park for ease of access for visitors, a welcoming reception area, comfortable arranging area and a private chapel of rest for families to spend with their loved ones. Hemel Funeral Service can provide all the help and advice needed on all aspects of Memorials and Masonry.

Hemel Funeral Service also offers Dignity funeral plans, funeral plans were first introduced in the UK in 1985 and to date, over 1.1 million people have purchased a funeral plan from a registered FPA provider.

"Three in five of the funerals we conduct have already been pre-arranged and paid for," explained Funeral Director, Richard Cornish. "It's not easy to think about planning for a funeral, but taking a little time to plan for the future can provide peace of mind and ensures you have the funeral you want without loved ones having to make difficult decisions about funeral arrangements."

"A Dignity plan allows you to make provisions towards your funeral costs at today's prices, regardless of how far in the future the funeral takes place."

The highest standard of service and care

Hemel Funeral Service is part of Dignity, a British company that has funeral directors in towns and cities all across the UK. Dignity funeral homes strive to set the highest standards for the funeral profession, 99.2% of respondents to their client survey say that they met or exceed their expectations .

"The families we look after are at the very heart of what we do" explained Richard Cornish, Funeral Director. Richard was born in Hemel and understands the local traditions and history associated with the town and its families. "I feel it is a privilege to help and offer support to local families during a difficult time in their lives."

Richard also has a keen interest in local history and aviation.

The Dignity promise:

- To treat all families and everyone that has died with compassion, respect, openness and care.
- To help our clients by providing open and straight forward information that enables them to make informed choices.
- To be transparent about our fees with no hidden extras.
- To spend as much time with the clients as they need.
- To pay attention to details and make sure everything is as the client wishes.

Advice and help

Hemel Funeral Service can provide advice on all aspects on end-of-life planning, helpful & informative leaflets, guidance on the legal aspects of burial or cremations, advising on and arranging pre-paid funerals plans and can provide information on local bereavement support organisations.

Members of the National Associations of Funeral Directors

Hemel Funeral Service is a member of the National Associations of Funeral Directors. This trade associations demands high professional standards, so in order to be accepted as members, funeral directors have to meet a strict criteria and abide by a Code of Conduct.

Hemel Funeral Service: 29 Stoneycroft, Warners End, Hemel Hempstead HP1 2QF

24 Hr Service: 01442 270036

www.dignityfunerals.co.uk