

NEW YEAR, NEW WINE. LIFE IS GOOD.

V. Careme 2016 Terre Brulee (17.99)--- Producer from Vouvray makes great Chenin Blanc in South Africa also. This dry white is the essence of what makes this grape so appealing.

Tavignano 2016 Misco Verdicchio (21.99)---Gambero Rosso, the bible of Italian wines, has tabbed this mouthwatering white the #1 white wine of the vintage.

Renegade Wine Co. 2013 Columbia Valley Red (15.99)---Second label from Washington State's Sleight of Hand winery. Robust red blend that over delivers for this price.

Chateau De Raousset 2015 'Douby' Morgon (21.99)---There are 10 Beaujolais Cru's and arguably Morgon is the most robust expression of the Gamay grape. Great texture and length.

Smoke and Mirrors 2014 Red Blend (21.99)---Before Orin Swift and their big reds was Jeff Cohn. His reds are never shy and deliver loads of ripe, jammy fruit.

Sleight of Hand 2015 The Conjuror Red (31.99)---Not sure how Neil Patrick Harris made the label but this Washington State blend conjures up pure pleasure with each glass.
