

When it comes to breast care, you want the best care.

We are proud to welcome Camelia Lawrence, MD, FACS, Director of Breast Surgery for The Hospital of Central Connecticut and MidState Medical Center, to our breast care team. Dr. Lawrence is board-certified in surgery and fellowship-trained in advanced breast cancer surgery. She specializes in benign and malignant breast disease.

Dr. Lawrence has more than 13 years of experience in breast care, including oncoplastic breast surgery, which combines surgical oncology with plastic surgery for the best cosmetic results. She has been recognized by the American Cancer Society as a “Women Leading the Way” honoree, and received much recognition for her work.

She earned her medical degree from the Rochester School of Medicine and Dentistry and completed her fellowship at John Wayne Cancer Institute, Santa Monica.
