WHEN DR. RUSH BROKE HIS LEG,
*he went home for closer,
better care.*

His ski trip didn't work out the way he'd planned, but Dr. Paul Rush wasn't taking any chances with treatment.

He flew 2,000 miles to see his trusted partners at OrthoCarolina Scotland to get him back on his feet.

He has confidence in these board certified specialists and knows Scotland Health Care is ranked one of America's safest hospitals.

It's why he made the choice to come home to Scotland—for closer care that's better by far.
