Ocean State Summer Pops | Orchestra Summer Concerts
Saturday, June 16 | 7pm | Saint Ann Arts & Cultural Center

The Ocean State Summer Pops Orchestra is dedicated to education and entertainment through music, and delivers orchestral and educational programming throughout the communities of Greater Rhode Island. The Orchestra's summer concert season runs through Labor Day, and the repertoire includes a broad variety of light classical pieces, as well as movie and show music, marches, and other pops-style selections. Performance locations are varied, and have included city, town, and corporate-sponsored events, churches, private concerts, regional and national conventions, retirement facilities, fireworks displays, and other venues.
