

“I can accomplish whatever I set my mind to.”

Justin, Team Member from Bathurst, NB

After college, Justin was on the hunt for a workplace where he could be part of a supportive team. His first job at Tim Hortons was the perfect fit and helped him grow as a young man. Once shy and secluded, Justin has become a social butterfly, gaining confidence and independence while discovering a sense of purpose within his community. Now, with the help of his mom, he runs a Facebook page that showcases his journey, showing that autism won't stop him from accomplishing his dreams. He regularly meets with other young adults on the autism spectrum, inspiring them to realize their full potential.

Thank you, Justin. And thanks to all those who make our community stronger.
