

Senior Commercial Property Conveyancer Jackie Abbott Joins Growing Derbyshire Firm

Ellis-Fermor & Negus welcome Commercial Property specialist to its Belper office

For more than 12 years, Jackie has worked in Commercial property. Jackie has gained expertise in acting on behalf of individuals, companies and charities on a wide range of commercial matters. Her experience also includes areas of charitable law having acted for both local and national charities.

In Derbyshire and beyond, Jackie is recognised for her approachability and high quality service. Jackie's efficient response and empathy towards her clients has resulted in lasting relationships being formed. Jackie's care and attention to her client's matters allows her to offer meaningful advice to suit their individual situations.

As an experienced equestrian and owner of two horses, Jackie has enjoyed making Derbyshire her home.

Simon Hale, Director and Head of the firm's Commercial Department commented, "We are continuing to expand our commercial property service in Belper and we are delighted to welcome Jackie as part of the team. She brings a wealth of experience and an approach focused on overcoming obstacles and progressing deals which I am sure our clients will appreciate."
